

This was my happy face after receiving my final dose of the Pfizer vaccine. Thankfully it won't be long until I can hug my grandchildren and resume visits with family and friends.

The vaccines are a true blessing. Thank you Knox County Health Department!